SUSQUEHANNA COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

October 1st has come and gone, marking the official integration of Susquehanna Community Bank with C&N. While the merger won't be complete until SCB systems are converted to C&N's in early December, we celebrate this new phase of the SCB and C&N merger, and recognize our teams as they have some celebrations of their own.

In September, we honored Kryisia Ziegler on her 10-year SCB Anniversary! Over the past decade, Kryisia has made impactful contributions to our team and customers. Thank you, Kryisia! We're so glad you're part of the SCB family!

We were also proud to support the Milton Harvest Festival Princess Pageant this year. SCB's Crissy Schreffler served as an advisor to Princess Carrie King. Congratulations to all the participants! You made our community proud!

And our team donned their running shoes covering traffic control for the Susquehanna Valley CASA Voice for Children 5k. Advocating for abused and neglected children in our region, CASA helps ensure every child has a safe and nurturing home. Thanks to everyone who supported this important cause! Stay tuned next month for our last official SCB newsletter and exciting updates!

AS we move closer to finalizing our merger, many customers have asked: Who is C&N, and why are we joining them?

Our decision to join C&N was guided by a shared mission and the opportunity to enhance your banking experience. C&N brings established resources for customers and employees, like an on-site Client Care Center for responsive support, a dedicated Risk Management Team to combat fraud, and a Treasury Management division to provide local, hands-on service for business clients.

You'll also gain access to expanded products and the trusted expertise of C&N's team-based approach to relationship banking.

Like C&N, we are deeply rooted in our neighborhoods through active community involvement and participation.

While our name will change, our mission will not. You can count on friendly, knowledgeable people, in the same locations, delivering great service for years to come.
